Accessed from the kitchen is a pretty rear patio off of which is a laundry room and a shower room and a large store room.

A staircase leading up from the patio leads to a roof terrace where there is a further store room / work shop.

This property is a much cherished family home and is in a well maintained habitable state although perhaps a little old fashioned in style.

Should a new owner wish to build a 2nd storey of accommodation, this should be possible, subject to obtaining the relevant building licenses.

All mains service are connected.
