The first bedroom still has the old style small window and the thick walls that keep the property cool in the summer. The second bedroom/office is a good size with the original exposed beams in the doorway. The lounge/ diner is a good size with a free standing wood burner. Off of the lounge are steps going downstairs into a store room/celler which could also be used as an office. Upstairs is the master bedroom with a terrace, that has fantastic views over the village and across to the surrounding mountains.
