Description
The buyer can choose from various styles for building their dream villa: modern, rustic, or Ibiza-style, all adjustable to their preferences. Therefore, the license is only applied for once the buyer's wishes and requirements are clear. The land is "urbano," and normally, the building permit can be obtained in 3 months. The total construction time from the awarding of the license is approximately 15 months. The project prices range from €1,500,000 to €1,700,000, depending on what the client desires.
The villa is spread over two levels and is practically laid out. Open plan living-dining-kitchen area, 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, guest toilet, etc.
Outside there are several terraces and a swimming pool of approximately 40 m². The property has a south orientation, which ensures plenty of daylight.
