5 Bedroom Luxury Cortijo for Sale in Álora, Málaga with Licensed Holiday Rental Business & 65,000m² of Land

A Rare Lifestyle & Investment Opportunity in AndalucÍa

Imagine waking each morning surrounded by ancient olive groves, spectacular mountain views and complete Andalusian tranquillity, yet being just minutes from the vibrant whitewashed town of Álora and less than fifteen minutes from the world-famous Caminito del Rey.

This beautifully restored nineteenth-century cortijo offers far more than an exceptional country home. Combining a luxury family residence, a licensed rural tourism business, a detached guest cottage and over 65,000m² of productive irrigated land, it represents one of the most versatile lifestyle and investment opportunities currently available in southern Spain.

Lovingly restored over the past twenty-five years, the estate blends authentic Andalusian charm with modern comforts, sustainable technology and proven income potential.

Whether you are searching for a luxury country home in Spain, an income-producing holiday rental business, an equestrian estate or a productive agricultural property, opportunities of this calibre rarely become available.

Beautifully Restored 19th Century Cortijo

The principal residence extends to approximately 269m² and occupies around 35,000m² of landscaped gardens and grounds.

Constructed from traditional natural stone, the cortijo has been sympathetically restored to preserve its original character while incorporating modern conveniences expected from a premium country home.

The property benefits from both a First Occupancy Licence (LPO) and a fully transferable VTAR holiday rental licence, providing complete flexibility for private occupation, luxury holiday accommodation or boutique Bed & Breakfast use.
