This traditional village house, dating from 1900, requires extensive reconstruction and reformation.

The property enjoys a corner position with uninterrupted views of the Andalucian countryside, at the end of a pedestrianized street, in the historic centre of Alora pueblo.

Set on a 127m² urban plot the house extends to 82m² and offers potential to provide a 2 or 3 bedroom house with private garden and fabulous views.

Mains water and electricity are available.

An interesting project.
