This traditional village house which enjoys access from two parallel streets and accommodation over 4 levels is located in a quiet central street of Alora pueblo. The principal entrance to the property is at an upper street level where one enters into a welcoming reception room leading through to a sitting room, a dining room and a bright spacious kitchen which allows access to a rear terrace which enjoys all day sunshine. There is a laundry room off the terrace. An attractive staircase leads from the reception room to the top floor of the house which hosts 3 bedrooms and a full bathroom and a balcony hosting stunning views. The property has a flat roof and there is the space and possibility to easily install a staircase from the top floor to develop a roof terrace. There is also a staircase leading down from the kitchen to the two lower street levels to the rear of the property. The semi-basement is currently used as a large storage area with small store off extending in total to 39 m² and also enjoys access to a lower street level which hosts a garage with access from the parallel street. This property offers great potential to be developed into a large house or indeed into two separate units of accommodation. All mains services are connected.
