Fully refurbished traditional village house enjoying a splendid elevated location in the historic center of Alora pueblo. Enjoying an elevated position one enters by a few steps up from the street onto a covered dining terrace which offers access to the house and of which is a summer kitchen. The accommodation is offered over two levels. On the lower level, there is a large open plan L-shaped lounge, dining room, kitchen. The kitchen is fully equipped and is of quality finish with hardwood cupboards and granite worktops. A full bathroom completes the accommodation on this level. A very attractive tiled staircase with decorative, hand-crafted wrought iron banisters leads to the upper level which hosts 3 double bedrooms which all enjoy fitted wardrobes and a family bathroom. A further staircase leads up to a spacious laundry room and a magnificent roof terrace which hosts almost 360&ordm; views of the Andalucian countryside. The finish of this property is of a high standard with "climalit" wood effect windows and decorative brickwork. This property offers the opportunity to buy a quality home within the historic part of Alora.
