This very attractive 2 bedroom village house has been very tastefully refurbished to a high standard by the current owners, using quality materials and finishes to include new plumbing, electrics, kitchen, bathroom, tiling and carpentry throughout and the installation of replacement windows. It enjoys an enviable corner position in a very quiet and yet central residential street of Álora pueblo. The accommodation is offered over two levels. At street level one enters into a welcoming lounge which leads through to a quality built fitted dining kitchen and a toilet with wash basin. An attractive staircase leads to the upper level which hosts two double bedrooms and a bathroom. One of the bedrooms enjoys aircon/heating. All mains services connected. This property really is in "walk-in" condition and would be ideal for either a permanent or holiday home.
