This substantial 152 m<sup>2</sup>, 4 bedroom village house enjoys an enviable position within a prestigious street just off the Plaza Fuente arriba in Alora. The accommodation is distributed over 4 levels. At street level one enters into a very welcoming attractively tiled "San Juan" vestibule with attractive glazed wooden doors leading into the spacious lounge/dining room which hosts a very attractive feature fireplace. A bright fitted dining kitchen into a small terrace off of the kitchen completes the accommodation at street level. An attractive marble staircase leads to the first floor where a generous landing area leads to two spacious double bedrooms. Both bedrooms have fitted wardrobes and Juliette balconies and another family bathroom. From this level one can also access a private South west facing 10 m<sup>2</sup> terrace which enjoys open views over Alora pueblo to the Andalusian countryside beyond. In addition to the main living accommodation there is also a spacious semi-basement which hosts a large room currently exploited as a laundry room/store room. There is also a bodega and a shower room on this level and access to a small attractively tiled patio.
