This immaculately presented, fully refurbished country house is located in a hamlet of a few houses in the area known as Angosturas, El Chorro, Álora, Málaga. The property is currently divided into 2 separate holiday letting units. The ground floor apartment offers a welcoming reception/ sitting room equipped with a sofa bed, a very attractive kitchen /dining room which hosts a wood burning stove, a spacious bedroom and a shower room. This apartment also enjoys access to a very attractive low maintenance garden/ patio which hosts fabulous views across the Andalucian countryside. The 1st floor apartment has its own independent access and offers a bright and spacious living room/dining room, hosting a sofa bed. This room enjoys access directly out onto a spacious terrace ,ideal for " al fresco" dining and hosting fabulous views of the stunning backdrop of Sierra La Huma Mountain. A compact, fully equipped kitchen, a large bedroom and a bathroom complete the accommodation on this level. The living room and bedroom are of very generous proportions and with the benefit of the sofa bed in the living room, at least 4 guests could comfortably be accommodated in this apartment. A large garage workshop completes the property. Total build size is approximately 90m2. Mains electricity, mains water and high speed Internet are connected. El Chorro is very important rock climbing location and is just a few kms away from the Guadalteba lakes and the famous Caminto del Rey. The area has benefited from substantial investment from both central Spanish government and Europe to reinstate and develop the famous "Caminito del Rey" into, what has become a major tourist attraction and thus generated a high demand for tourist accommodation. This property offers any potential buyer an opportunity to further exploit the rural tourism business or,indeed, enjoy the property as a smart comfortable, permanent or holiday home. It is offered in " walk-in" condition.
