AREA

Located in Fuengirola, a coastal town in the province of Malaga with one of the best infrastructures and variety of services on the Costa del Sol. The beautiful promenade connects its beaches with some of its imposing points of interest, among which the castle of Sohail.

Fuengirola combines the most deeply rooted traditions of the area with innovation and modernity. Its privileged geographical location, between the sea and the mountains, and its excellent connection with Malaga, place it among the most attractive destinations in the province.
